IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM

MORRIS: In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Joel T. Morris, who departed this life one year ago, June 6, 1957.

Lonely are our hearts without you,
Sad it seems for us today,
For the one we loved so dearly
Forever from us has passed away.

No one knew when you left home that day,
That you would never return—
For sad and sudden was the call,
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.

We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you couldn't say goodbye,
Before you closed your eyes.
Our home is not the same,
Since you have passed away,
There's grief and sorrow always there,
Since that sad and fatal day.

—Sadly missed by wife, children, and grandchildren.

PUBLIC AUTION

Sale of Valuable Timber Land in Clover Hill District of Appomattox County, Virginia

Saturday, June 28, 1958, on the premises at 10:00 A. M.

Pursuant to decree entered by the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, Virginia, in the Chancery cause of Emma Abbitt, et als, vs. Garvis Fowler, et als, the undersigned Special Commissioner will offer for sale on the premises at the time set out above the three tracts of land known as the Ned Abbitt and Jennie Abbitt land near Evergreen, Virginia, and just North or Northeast of US Highway 460 and almost at Morning Star Church and lying on State Secondary Roads 634 and 632. The real estate will be sold in two tracts, to-wit:

(1) All of that certain tract or parcel of real estate known as the Ned Abbitt home tract of land containing 41½ acres, more or less, this being a sale by the boundary and not by the acre, adjoining the cemetery lot of Morning Star Church, the Ernest Abbitt home place, G. R. Wright, and others and just off of State Secondary Road 634.

(2) All of those two tracts or parcels of land containing 38½ acres, more or less, and 15 acres, more or less, this being a sale by the boundary and not by the acre, said land lying in the forks of the Evergreen to Appomattox Road (State Secondary Road 632) and the Evergreen to Buck Trent road (State Secondary Road 634) and on the road from the lands of G. K. Wright and adjoining the lands of Kate Crank. Said land is just a short distance from the above described tract No. 1 and a very short distance North of Morning Star Church. The 38½ acre tract was owned by Ned Abbitt at the time of his death and the 15 acre tract was owned by Jennie Abbitt at the time of her death and known as the "main boot" tract of land.

TERMS: CASH.

Auctioneer: J. H. O'Brien.

Place and Time: Saturday, June 28, 1958, at 10:00 A. M., on the premises.

W. M. Abbitt,
Special Commissioner.

A very large crowd attended the annual Baccalaureate services at the Carver-Price High School last Sunday afternoon in the main auditorium of the school. The guest speaker was Dr. Charles Satchell Morris, II, Special Public Relations Counselor of Florida A. & M. State University. He spoke from the subject, "Eternal Security." All who heard him enjoyed the message. The invocation was offered by Rev. R. Q. Lawing, and the benediction was given by Rev. N. R. Jordan.

The sixth annual men's program of the Promise Land Baptist church was held last Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock, with the Rev. H. L. Wiggins as guest minister. The welcome address was given by deacon Stewart Robinson and the response was given by Herbert Allen, of the First Baptist Church. The history of the club was given by deacon William Hancock, who also served as master of ceremony. A paper was read by deacon George Beasley, and a solo was rendered by deacon King of the Galilee church. Tim Lawing furnished music. The offering was lifted by Clarence Wheeler and Charlie Pitch. Remarks were given by the pastor of the church.

Impressive services were given at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special sermon. The church choir rendered special music. The offering for the day was very good. A special after-offering was taken for the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hasidah Association after an appeal from Mrs. B. C. King, a field missionary of the auxiliary.

All officers and members of the Promise Land Baptist Church are asked to attend the regular evening service this Sunday at 7:30. The pastor will have charge of the service.

Little Miss Beatrice James is undergoing special treatment in the Lynchburg General Hospital. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Rev. R. Q. Lawing and his son, Raymond Jr., spent Saturday in Petersburg, Va., to get the N. F. A. and N. H. A. Camp ready for summer opening. Raymond Jr. took a special examination offered by the School of Agriculture.

WHEAT REFERENDUM SET FOR JUNE 20

Voting place for the referendum to be held June 20 on marketing quotas for the 1959 wheat crop were announced today by Floyd Fleshman, chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. The voting place for Appomattox County will be the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office at Appomattox.

Eligible voters may cast their ballots at the office any time between the hours of 8:00 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. on June 20, the chairman said.

Farmers who are eligible to vote in the wheat quota referendum are all those who in 1959 will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on a farm, except those who are participating in the 1958 feed wheat program. Feed wheat participants are permitted to grow up to 30 acres of wheat for use only on the farm where grown, without being subject to marketing quota penalties.

If at least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve the quotas, they will remain in effect for the 1959-crop wheat and price support will be available to farmers who comply with their farm wheat allotments at a national average of not less than $1.81 per bushel, or 7 per cent of parity. Farmers who exceed the larger of the farm allotment or 16 acres will be subject to a marketing penalty of 45 per cent of the wheat parity price on their "excess" wheat, and if the excess is not stored or delivered to the Secretary of Agriculture, the excess acreage will not be considered in setting future allotments.

If the quotas are not approved by at least 2/3's of the growers voting, they will not be in effect, and price support will be available to farmers who comply with their farm wheat allotments at about $1.20 per bushel, or 50 per cent of parity.

Evergreen Commencement

Commencement exercises for the seventh grade of Evergreen Elementary School took place on Tuesday evening, June 3, at 8:00 o'clock. Miss Joyce Wingfield played the processional and directed the primary grades in the opening and closing songs. Rev. Donald Clark, pastor of the Evergreen Methodist Church, gave the invocation, and Mr. Earl J. Smith, County Supervisor of Instruction, gave the address. Members of the seventh grade, who took part on the program were as follows:

Welcome, Nancy Childress; class history, Betty Kay Evans; class prophecy, Ellen McFadden; gifts, Bobby McFadden; class will, Fred Hunter Martin.

Certificates were presented to members of the seventh grade at the close of the program by Mr. Smith.

NEW BOOK IN THE COUNTY LIBRARY

Inside Russia Today
By John Guenther

This important new book is authoratative and comprehensive, and at the same time immensely readable; in scope, yet intimate; written with zest; packed with drama, color, personality, and a wealth of anecdote. It is also an eye-opener, scrupulously objective and fair-minded.

Jaycees To Meet

The Appomattox County Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet on Monday night, June 16 at 7:30 at Appomattox Garment Co. cafeteria.

Holliday Lake Now Open

Holliday Lake has opened for the current season. Regular 4-H camps are ready to begin on the club side of the lake.

Largest No. of Indictments

CHAPTER MEETING

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will have a picnic at the home of Mrs. A. J. Zostrow on Friday evening, June 20, at 6:00 o'clock. Mrs. E. E. Coleman will be guest speaker, using as her subject, "Jefferson Davis."

New Book By Babcock

One of Appomattox's most celebrated natives, Dr. Havilah Babcock has just had a new book published. The volume is entitled, "I Don't Want To Shoot An Elephant," and has been published by Henry Holt and Company, of New York. It is a collection of eighteen articles and stories telling of hunting dogs and game birds; fresh-water fishing, and adventures with the bobwhite quail.

Dr. Babcock, brother of Mrs. F. L. Murphy, and son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Babcock, of Appomattox, is head of the Department of English at the University of South Carolina. Mrs. Babcock is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shields, of Appomattox.

Previous books by Dr. Babcock include: "My Health Is Better In November," and "Tales of Quails N Such."

OPEN - HOUSE LIGHTING TOURS

OPEN - HOUSE LIGHTING TOURS

Three Appomattox County homes will be ablaze with light on Monday, June 16 and Tuesday, June 17, from 8:00 P. M. to 9:30 P. M. The purpose of the abundance of light is the "Lighting Tours" of the homes. These Appomattox county homeowners have been cooperating with the county Extension Agents and the power suppliers in the area in demonstrating the principles of "Better Light for Better Living." The tours will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Terry, Town of Appomattox; and Mr. and Mrs. R. Harold Chambers, Red House neighborhood on Monday night, June 16, at the times mentioned. On the night of June 17, the J. B. Terry home will again be open, and the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Harrison of the Hebron community will also be open at the time specified.

Lighting in every day living is a most important problem. These demonstration homes will show the use of fixtures and lamps for the best in lighting arrangements.

The following 4-H Club members will assist with the tours: Penny Abbitt, Carole Faye Couch, Sandra Pillow, Virginia Rush, Joe Terry, Tom Evans, Jimmy Torrence Joyce Edmonds, Brenda Rogerston, Anita Richardson, Marry Grey Holland, Nancy Boisy, Danny Herscall, Susan Jennings, Caterine Richardson, Betty Jane Alvis, Carey Ann Carson, Laura Carson, Winifred Lee, Barbara Lee, Eloise Bondurant, Gene Carson, Clyde Bondurant, John L. Harrison, Tom Harrison, John Alvis, Madeline Bondurant, Betty Raye Nash, Layvonne May, Barbara Tucker, Herman Nash, Jr.; Norman Booth, Sammie Scott, T. C. Torrence and Winifred Nash.

Refreshments will be served at each of the demonstration homes. The public is cordially invited to participate in these tours.

Gets Bachelor of Science Degree

. . . Miss Judith Eileen Holderman

Farmville, Va.- Miss Judith Eileen Holderman, of Appomattox County, received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education at commencement exercises June 1 at Longwood College. While at Longwood, Miss Holderman served as a member of the Athletic Association Council and was manager of the tennis team. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holderman.

MISS JACQUELINE HOLDERMAN IS R. P. I. GRADUATE

Miss Jacqueline Elaine Holderman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holderman, of Appomattox County, received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Occupational Therapy from the Richmond Professional Institute of the College of William and Mary, on Sunday evening, June 8.

The colorful exercises held at the Mosque in Richmond represented the forty-first commencement exercise of the Richmond Professional Institute, with 228 persons receiving B. S. Degrees.

Miss Holderman transferred to the Richmond Professional Institute in 1954 after one year at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. She made an excellent college record, graduating in the top quarter of her class. Her studies included in addition to liberal arts, such courses in her major subject as psychology, anatomy, physiology, kinesiology, neurology and medical lectures.

She was quite active in extra curricular activities including active participation in the Occupational Therapy Club. She served as official hostess for the club banquet, held May 8, 1958.

After a brief vacation with her family she will enter clinical affiliation in selected hospitals. On July 1 she will report to the Veterans Administration Hospital, Hines, Illinois for 3 months internship and then to the Boston State Hospital, Boston, Mass., fo rOct., Nov. and Dec., and conclude her nine month internship at Walter Reed Army Hospital, Washington, on April 4, 1959.

Miss Holderman is entering a profession in which there is an ever increasing demand for well qualified people. For every graduate occupational therapist there are at least twenty jobs.

With the present mayor and five of six present members of the town council not running, the voters of the Town of Pamplin Tuesday elected a new mayor and five new council members.

The Rev. Harold Anderson, Baptist minister and Pamplin school principal, was the only candidate for mayor. He received 56 votes. He will succeed Earl Smith.

Edward Harvey was the only present councilmen seeking re-election. He was one of the six winners in a field of ten. The top six for the town council were:

Rev. William Chappell, 55
Roy P. Lucado, 54
Z. T. Moran, 50
W. C. Dudley, 43
Edward Harvey 39
Mrs. Stuart Farrar, 31.

Four other candidates ended up as follows:

Russell Covington, 28
Mrs. Gwen Smith, 26
Mrs. Bessie Mattox, 26
J. A. Williams, 23.

There was interest here in several other elections held Tuesday in Virginia towns and cities.

In Crewe, W. C. Averett was a candidate for mayor, opposing the incumbent, J. H. Flippin. A total of 17 ran for the Crewe town council. In the mayor's race, Flippen won, with the unofficial count at 523 to 206.

Mr. Averett is owner of Averett Department Store in Appomattox.

In Farmville, E. Louis Dahl was nosed out for mayor, 537 to 483, by William F. Watkins, Jr.

In Brookneal, Vince J. Lusardi was re-elected to the town council. He is the son-in-law of Senator Chas. T. Moses, of Appomattox.

In Dillwyn, E. J. Jones was elected mayor, and the following to the council: B. A. Seay, Frank H. Self, R. B. Banson, Grover C. Jones, Leslie O'Bryant, and Austin Goode.
